Description

The Department of Basic Science & Humanities (BS&H) of NCET organized a Seminar on “Effective Communication Skills for Career Development” on 16-09-2025 in association with Quiklrn Software, Quiklrn Private Limited Bengaluru, Karnataka. The seminar aimed to highlight the importance of effective communication in professional growth and to introduce innovative tools in student’s trends that can enhance their career readiness.

The session began with a welcome address, followed by an introduction of seminar’s objectives. The keynote address given by the guest speaker from Quiklr Software who emphasized that communication is not just about language proficiency but also about clarity, confidence, listening skills, and adaptability in different professional contexts.

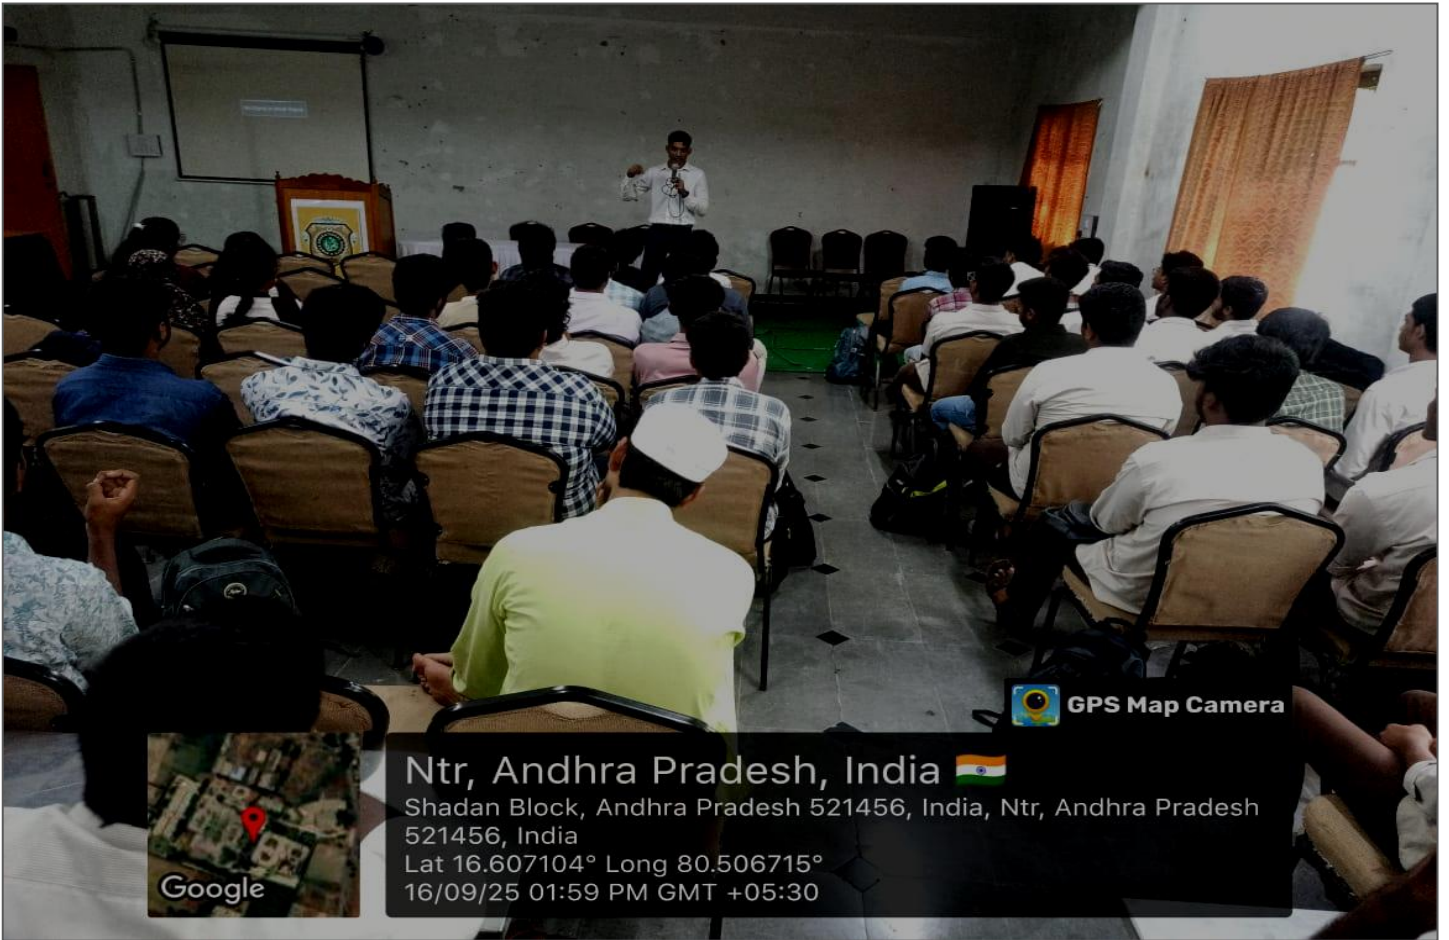

During the seminar, he demonstrated how Quiklr Software can be effectively used as a platform to improve communication, presentation, and collaborative skills. Practical exercises and interactive activities were conducted to engage the participants and help them understand real-world applications of communication in interviews, group discussions, and workplace interactions.

The seminar also included discussions on topics such as body language, email etiquette, resume presentation, and professional networking. Students were encouraged to actively participate, share their views, and practice techniques demonstrated through the software. The seminar proved to be highly insightful and interactive, equipping students with tools and techniques to enhance their communication skills and prepare for future professional challenges.

The program concluded with a motivational view by the Principal, who stressed the importance of communication skills in shaping a successful career. A vote of thanks was proposed, appreciated the efforts of Quiklr Software and the organizers of BS&H department for arranging such a valuable and career-oriented seminars.
